

Problems We Solve

Mining wastewater

- Triple extraction/processing of sulfide ore
- Key to ensure constant supply of water at site
- Application requires accurate measurement of suction and discharge pressure on sludge pumps

Solutions

- Isolation rings allow for pressure measurement without worry of clogging and expensive maintenance
- Specification required process sizes of 24" to 30"
- Developed product that provides the customer with a single, reliable solution

